What to Expect from Different Types of Sources

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Primary</th>
<th>Organize</th>
<th>Secondary</th>
<th>Select</th>
<th>Tertiary</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Index</td>
<td></td>
<td>Concentrate</td>
<td>Transform</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Critique</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

General Examples
- research articles
- patent
- emails
- conference proceedings
- ... ...
- PubMed
- SciFinder
- Web of Science
- (Reaxys)
- review articles
- handbooks
- encyclopedia
- textbooks
- ... ...

Chemical Safety Examples
- Organic Process Research & Development
- C&EN News - SafetyZone
- Aldrich Technical Bulletin
- ... ...
- PubChem
- [DCHAS-L] Chemical Safety headlines from Google
- ... ...
- Bretherick’s Handbook
- Prudent practices in the Laboratory
- ... ...

---

Mostly implicit safety information

Entry point to primary and tertiary sources

Mostly explicit safety information